This Writ Appeal is preferred against the Order in W.P.M.P.No.13544 of 2004 in W.P.No.10672 of 2004 dated 07.07.2004, by which the learned Single Judge of this Court declined to pass an interim order in favour of the appellant herein, while admitting the Writ Petition. The learned Single Judge passed elaborate order giving the reasons for refusing the interim directions as prayed for by the petitioner therein. In the circumstances, we do not see any reason to interfere with the order passed by the learned Single Judge. We find no error in the jurisdiction exercised by the learned Single Judge.

2. However, it is brought to our notice that the petitioner has only one year service left and if the impugned order is not suspended he might loose his job. On the face of the allegations that the petitioner secured a job on the basis of a false caste certificate, we do not see any reason to grant interim directions. But, however we are of the opinion that the matter requires an early disposal.

3. Registry is directed to list the Writ Petition No.10672 of 2004 for final hearing before the appropriate Court in the first week of December, after obtaining necessary orders from the Hon'ble the Chief Justice.

4. Accordingly, the Writ Appeal is dismissed. No costs.
